IS DYING IN MINE TRAP 800 FEET DEEP

MICHAEL McCABE BURIED ALIVE
UNDER HIS OWN HOUSE

TAKE MONTHS TO REACH HIM

Family Can See Doomed Man and Wife in Frenzy Wilds Pick
Until Stopped

HONEY CITY, Pa., Nov. 11.—In sight of his wife and four children Michael McCabe is slowly dying in a living tomb. Down in the depths of Draper colliery, almost directly under his own home, McCabe, who is 39 years old, is entrapped. He is behind thousands of tons of slush and dirt, alive, but doomed to death, beyond all hope of rescue.

He has been imprisoned since 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon, when he fired a blast which caused a cave-in of slush. The gangway became blocked.

Rescuers are working like Trojans today, although experts say it is impossible to reach the entombed man McCabe is eight hundred feet below the surface. If alive, he is probably insane now. His frantic wife seized a pick and worked for hours until she was forced to stop. It may take months to reach McCabe's body.

ROBS THEN FLEES IN VICTIM'S AUTO

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 11.—A daring footpad held up Mrs. L. A. Kindler in her auto, forced her to take him for a drive and at the end of the trip choked her into insensibility, robbed her of her valuables and drove away in the auto.

Mrs. Kindler was robbed of a gold watch, two diamond rings and her purse, containing $45. She had been at the home of her sister and was returning home alone when the footpad stopped her and at the point of a revolver, forced her to let him get into the machine.

For more than a mile Mrs. Kindler drove the machine along with the footpad at her side. He held his revolver under his coat and his hair chauffeur was afraid to cry for help.

SALOONIST DYNAMITE HUMANE OFFICER

MONTROSE, Col., Nov. 11.—An attempt was made last night to assassinate with dynamite Dr. Charles Beatty, humane officer, who is prosecuting saloonists here for selling children liquor. The dynamite was exploded under a buggy he was riding in. The vehicle was demolished, Beatty escaping with slight bruises.

MAYOR IMPEACHED; CAUSE, FIRE HAZARD

MUNCIE, Ind., Nov. 11.—This city is today trying to oust Mayor Guthrie, who is held responsible for the disorganization of the fire department. While the firemen are fighting amongst themselves, the city would be at the mercy of the flames should a fire start. The insurance companies may cancel all insurance. Owing to poor work of the firemen a wholesale house burned last week with a loss of half a million. Chief Karlen resigned after this.

SOCIALISM GETS A MILWAUKEE MINISTER

KENOSHA, Wis., Nov. 11.—(Special.)—Rev. Harvey Brown of the First Baptist church, has announced his conversion to socialism. He will quit the pulpit. He arraigns church methods in scathing language.

The residue of the estate had been in the hands of Attorney Charles B. Miller. The sale amounted to $140.15.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 11.—Gov. Davidson Saturday issued the following Thanksgiving proclamation:

"The abundant harvests which bless our land and the evidence of good cheer all about us should remind us of our great indebtedness to the All Wise Ruler, who watches over His people.

"The people of our nation, and especially those who dwell in our state, have enjoyed a year of peace and plenty. Our land is free from war and pestilence, and the future promises better even than the past has fulfilled.

"Because of these providential favors there should be universal thankfulness. Therefore, in conformity with the proclamation of the president of the United States, I, James O. Davidson, governor of the state of Wisconsin, do designate Thursday, the 28th day of November, 1907, as a day of thanksgiving and praise. I recommend that the people of the state abstain from their usual avocations and assemble in their accustomed places of worship and return thanks to the God of nations for the blessings enjoyed.

"In witness whereof, I have hereto set my hand and caused the great seal of the state of Wisconsin to be affixed.

"Made at the capitol, this 9th day of November, in the year of our Lord 1907.

"By James A. Frear, Secretary of State."

DID GRANT ASK TO BE A "REBEL?"

INTERESTING CONTROVERSY
OVER FORMER PRESIDENT

SOUTHERN PAPER STARTS IT

Museum Superintendent Who Is Quoted Indignantly Denies Any Knowledge of the Affair

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 11.—Did General U. S. Grant once apply to Confederate President Jefferson Davis for a commission in the rebel army, together with Admiral Farragut and General Geo. H. Thomas, or is Captain A. L. Derossa, Wilmington, N. C., a fanatic whose article making this charge in the "Confederate Veteran" may not be depended upon?

Washington is puzzling its head over this queer controversy which has been started by Capt. Derossa's article. The southern captain gives as his first hand authority Judge Robert Ould of Richmond, Va., and declared that when he investigated the reports they were verified by A. J. Chaloron, custodian of the Louisiana state confederate museum. He claims the custodian had the original letter from Gen. Grant, then Capt. Grant, making the application to President Davis, in his possession, and that it was to be published two years after the death of Mrs. Jefferson Davis.

Capt. Derossa says in his article: "Asked to Rebel Commission."

"Upon the secession of the southern states in 1861, Capt. Grant applied to the governor of Illinois for a commission to raise a regiment to serve in the United States army, war then being the talk. His request for a commission was ignored at that time, and later on, Jefferson Davis having been inaugurated provisional president of the confederate states at Montgomery, Ala., on Jan. 18, 1861, he wrote asking for a commission in the confederate army."

Calls Derossa Crazy.

"Capt. Derossa is either crazy or is misstating facts when he makes me authority for the statement that Gen. U. S. Grant applied to Jefferson Davis for a commission in the confederate army," says Col. A. J. Chaloron, custodian of the Louisiana confederate museum. "No one has ever examined the Davis papers, and no one shall until permission is given by Mrs. Hays, his daughter. They were given to us with the especial trust that they remain unopened until instructions to exhibit them were given, and this has never been done. All applications to examine the papers have been referred to Mrs. Hays and she has consistently refused them."

"I saw Capt. Derossa but once, and I told him when he approached me on the subject that if such papers were in existence they were in the Davis collection, and I knew nothing about it."

"Such rumors are always current about great men, and while it is, of course, probable that such applications might have been made to Mr. Davis no one on earth, except his daughter, can vouch for the existence of such applications."

GOMPERTS TALKS TO LABOR FEDERATION

NORFOLK, Nov. 11.—There were few absentees among the four hundred delegates to the American Federation of Labor convention, which was called to order at 10 o'clock this morning at the Jamestown exposition. Gov. Swanson welcomed the federation. President Samuel Gompers and Secretary Morrison delivered addresses. This completed the day's business.

POWERS FACES FOURTH TRIAL FOR THE GOEBEL MURDER IN KENTUCKY TODAY

FAMOUS MAN HAS OUTLINED DEFENSE

EXPECTS ACQUITTAL AND WILL RUN FOR CONGRESS

TRIAL AT 10 O'CLOCK A. M.

Counsel for Powers There Except Sims—Ex-Governor Taylor Expected as Witness.

GEORGETOWN, Ky., Nov. 11.—The fourth trial of Caleb Powers, charged with the murder of Lieut. Gov. William Goebel, was called before Judge Morris this morning. The famous prisoner entered the court at 10 o'clock, and appeared in good spirits, indicating that his health is excellent. All his counsel are here, except Judge Sims.

On motion of Attorney Franklin, who declared that a number of important witnesses had not answered, the trial was postponed until tomorrow.

Powers to Seek Congress.

Powers is planning a campaign for congress when he is acquitted of the murder charge which has hung over him since the Kentucky tragedy of 1896. The question of acquittal, however, is still to be decided. Three times has Powers failed to prove his innocence, but the cause is laid to the door of perverted justice. In his cell in the jail at Georgetown, where he has spent most of the last seven years, he is preparing and conducting his own line of defense, expecting to be ultimately cleared of the charge of shooting William Goebel, a murder which has become internationally famous. Three times has Powers been convicted, three times the court of appeals has set aside these convictions. The fourth hearing is approaching.

An Interesting Feature.

Interest is added to the trial by the fact that ex-Governor Taylor, since the murder a refugee in Indiana on a charge of complicity in it, after having successfully battled against extradition, will appear as witness under the court's promise of immunity and a safe return to Indiana.

MURDER CASE WAITS FOR FUNERAL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—After calling the Bradley case today and causing a list of the witnesses to be read, Justice Stafford this morning adjourned court until Wednesday morning, owing to the death of Justice McComas. Mrs. Bradley and her attorneys were in court ready to proceed.

A Hopeless Woman.

Before leaving her cell, the woman took a look at Brown's picture, which she has had before her for eleven months. She is scarcely more than a wisp of a woman. After a final conference with his client, Judge Powers said: "This is not a fight for the mother, but for her children. She looks upon her future as a blank; hope for self died long ago."

SUPERVISORS MEET IN FALL SESSION

Tomorrow the fall meeting of the county board of supervisors will be held in the county building. Outside the payment of bills, election of officers, and consideration of little new business nothing of great importance is expected to be brought before the board.

The old, old proposition of straightening out the Onalaska road probably will be brought before the body for action again.

CUDAHY ENGAGEMENT HAS BEEN CANCELED

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—A wedding that was looked forward to with interest in Chicago and Pittsburg society was canceled yesterday without any explanations. The principals are Miss Isabel W. Pontefract, a Pittsburg heiress, and John Cudahy, J. son of the Chicago packer.

The sword that cut this golden link between the two cities was wielded by Mrs. James G. Pontefract.

MISTAKES MULES TAIL FOR SWITCH

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 11.—Mistaking the tail of a mule for an electric light pull rope in the darkest corner of his barn, John McCarthy of this city gave the supposed contact line a sharp jerk. The jump did not light, but McCarthy saw stars. McCarthy is in a hospital.

APPALACHIAN RESERVE LIKELY

PART OF "TEDDY'S" HOPE

Preservation of Nation's Resources
Seen by Leaders as a Need of Importance

Washington Bureau of
The La Crosse Tribune.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 11.
(By J. C. Welliver.)

Secretary Wilson will strongly urge congress the coming session to pass a bill creating the Appalachian forest reserve, and there is considerable prospect that his wishes will be followed. The forest service, headed by Forester Gifford Pinchot, is earnestly in favor of such legislation, and President Roosevelt is enthusiastically supporting it, as being one of the important steps in the direction of conserving the natural resources of the country, a matter in which he is most deeply interested.

Protection Against Hardwood Famines.

Protection of the country against a hardwood famine which is threatened in the next fifteen years, preservation of its forests, protection of power-producing streams and the possibilities of increasing the capacity of a large number of streams for navigable purposes, are leading reasons why the reclamation of the Appalachian forest reserve will be urged on congress.

The subject has been before house and senate for several sessions. Last winter, a bill passed the senate but the house failed to vote upon it. It empowered and directed the secretary of agriculture to acquire by purchase or otherwise lands suited to forest-reserve purposes in the White Mountains in New Hampshire, and in Maryland, West Virginia, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Tennessee. While the general term Appalachian forest reserve, is applied to the whole proposition, the proposed reserve in the White Mountains will be known as the White Mountain reserve and the remainder of the reserve the Appalachian reserve.

Will Speak Good Word in Congress.

William L. Hall, assistant forester, has lately returned to Washington after accompanying a number of

ARRESTED AT JAIL DOOR FOR ROBBERY

JAMES HOWARD HELD FOR MIN-
DORO SAFE BLOWING

P.O. INSPECTOR INVESTIGATED

While Prisoner Was Safely in Jail and He Will Now be Prosecuted on More Serious Charge.

When the time to release James Howard, vagrant and alleged yeggman, from the county jail rolled around this morning, the prisoner was not given his expected liberty, but will be rearrested, this time on a charge of having blown the safe in the general store of F. J. Ruland, Mindoro, Wis., on the night of Sept. 24. A burglary in the night time charge will be made against Howard.

Howard was arrested in La Crosse shortly after the Mindoro robbery as a vagrant. He pleaded guilty to the charge and was sentenced to forty days in the county jail, that the charge of burglary against him might be investigated. The police and sheriff harbored an opinion that he might have blown the safe. During the confinement of Howard, Postal Inspector E. E. Fraser conducted the investigation.

A ring in the possession of Howard at the time of his arrest, and other articles, similar to those carried in stock by Ruland prompted the investigation. Postal Inspector Fraser was called in because the Ruland store also the postoffice in Mindoro, and the safe was the property of the government.

Swears Out Warrant.

A warrant for the arrest of Howard was sworn out by Detective John Webber this afternoon. A further investigation of Howard's alleged relation to the burglary will be held. In event nothing more is learned, Howard will be given his freedom.

UPPER MICHIGAN COVERED BY SNOW

BOOSTING PLAN IS MEETING SUCCESS

SECRETARY CALVERT HAS MORE THAN FIFTY REPLIES

WILL NOT REPORT JUST NOW

But will Wait Until Nov. 15th, the Time Allowed for Replies Before Compiling Figures

Skeptics who were of the opinion that the plan adopted by the Local Patronage committee of the La Crosse Manufacturers and Jobbers' union would meet with but little success, will no doubt change their views when they learn that Secretary R. Calvert received during the last twenty-four hours, about 50 answers, containing the circulars which were sent out to be filled in by the various retailers.

None of the answers which had been received as confidential had yet been opened and the secretary said this morning that he would not get out a report of them until after the 15th, the time allowed.

The report of the secretary has been received with much enthusiasm by the committee which has devoted much time and effort to educating the people of La Crosse toward a greater consumption of goods that are manufactured here so that the money spent will be circulated at home.

COULAM LEAVES FOR YEOMEN CONVENTION

NOISED "BLOOMERS"; ONLY WORE POSIES

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 11.—Attracted by the announcement that the women were to wear "bloomers" a large number of young men attended a church supper given last night by the women of St. John's Episcopal church at Sangus. Mrs. F. H. Dodge, who was in charge of the supper, admitted in the afternoon that Miss Mabel Hitchings, who captained the women's baseball team last summer, would wear her baseball outfit at supper and the last tickets went with a rush.

The women attended, however, dressed in ordinary feminine garb. All wore bouquets, and the light dawned on a little man at the back of the hall.

"Stung," he exclaimed, getting up and reaching for his hat. "The blooming bloomers are only chrysanthemums."

HIRSCHHEIMER STOPS THE LUMBER MINERS

Harry Hirschheimer appeared on the P. S. Division estate with an attorney Saturday and stopped several men who were digging in the channel for lumber.

The law specifies that when land adjoins a river the water belongs to the property as far out as the channel of the river.

DEBATE UTILITY BILL

At 2:00 p. m. today the entire "Q" system was stopped until 2:05 on account of the funeral of ex-President C. Perkins, Boston, Mass.

WALES IN FOG IN SEARCH FOR KAISER

GLOOM OF BLIND MIST HANGS
OVER PORTSMOUTH

SOVEREIGNS MEET AND KISS

English Naval Officer Reprimanded
for Sending an Insolent Message

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The arrival of the Kaiser and his suite in a dense fog at 6 o'clock this afternoon was more like a funeral procession than the landing of royalty. The Prince of Wales and Duke of Connaught, who were at the Portsmouth wharf to welcome the visitors, almost had to feel for the Kaiser and his consort. There was not much cheering, because the crowd couldn't see the royal party at all. Water was dripping from everything, and even the Kaiser's mustache was drooping. The fog prevented the gorgeous pageant. The original plan was for the emperor and empress to land early this morning and make the occasion a grand festival.

When the Kaiser arrived at Windsor Castle the sovereigns exchanged kisses. The king rode to the castle with the Kaiserin, the emperor with the queen. The town was brilliantly decorated and the streets lined with soldiers.

Delayed in Night.

The German imperial yacht Hohenzollern, which brought the party to England, ran into a fog bank off Sandown bay, Isle of Wight, last evening, making it impossible to enter the bay as had been planned.

After waiting some time for the fog to lift, the Hohenzollern and the cruisers escorting the royal craft anchored for the night, resuming the voyage early in the morning.

It became known when the emperor left Germany that his confidence in British police is such that he is traveling, for the first time, without his usual bodyguard of detectives.

An extraordinary incident has come to light in connection with the visit of the German emperor. It is related that at the conclusion of the recent maneuvers the channel fleet and the first cruiser squadron were ordered by the admiralty to repaint, etc., in honor of the German emperor.

Commander Rebuked.

On receipt of this order Sir Percy Scott, commander of the cruiser squadron, sent the following signal to two of his vessels:

"Paint work appears to be more in demand than gunnery, so you would better come in time to look pretty by the eighth instant."

Admiral Lord Charles Beresford, in a general order to the fleet repeating the instructions to repaint, refers to the signal sent out by Sir Percy Scott as "contemptuous in tone and insubordinate in character," and orders Sir Percy to have it stricken from the signal log.

Sir Percy Scott and the members of his staff were summoned aboard Admiral Beresford's flagship last Friday and the admiral's reprimand was read to them. The affair created consternation in the fleet and there is a probability that it will lead to the resignation of Sir Percy.

Expert on Gunnery.

Rear Admiral Sir Percy Scott is probably the best versed officer in gunnery in the British navy. He is well known as the man who "saved Ladysmith" in 1899.

SLAIN IN AWFUL FIGHT FOR LIFE

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Nov. 11.—Badly mutilated and bearing marks showing that he had been shot repeatedly and terribly beaten, the body of William Cline, a citizen of Bolivar, Pa., near here, was found in a field a short distance from that town. The earth was torn up over a space of a quarter of an acre around the body, indicating that Cline had made a hard struggle for his life. The motive of the crime is thought to have been robbery.

ILLUSTRATES PLAY; DISLOCATES KNEE

Prof. James Ford, a member of the Winona high school faculty, was unable to watch the football game between La Crosse and Winona in the Gate City Saturday. While the teams were fighting for the gridiron championship of the two cities, Ford lie in his bed with a dislocated knee, a victim of his own enthusiasm.

Friday night a big mass meeting was held in the Winona school. When Prof. Ford came to his address he became too enthusiastic. In an exhibition of how to tackle, he jumped into the air and fell to the floor, dislocating the knee. The professor will be confined to his bed for several weeks.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS WIN WINONA GAME

WALLOP MINN. SOTA RIVALS FIFTEEN TO NOTHING

CONTEST WAS A FAST ONE

Judge of the Contest Tried to Help Out Home Team, But Treatment Was Fair on the Whole

La Crosse high school 15, Winona high school 0, tells the story of the well fought football contest at Winona Saturday.

The teams were well matched, La Crosse probably having a shade the better of the argument as to weight, but the Winona boys put up a plucky fight and held out to the final whistle of the referee. Superior playing on the part of the La Crosse team succeeded in giving them the victory over their old time rivals.

The game was marked by spectacular and brilliant plays on both sides, Joe Burke, the Winona quarterback starred for his team, while Fowler, Larson and the Dahlgren brothers were the contenders for the honors of the local team. Two thirty minute halves were played and although the field was heavy, and during most of the game a drizzling rain and snow was falling, the game was fast and the playing was exceedingly snappy.

Game Starts.

At 3:15 Captain Dahlgren and Capt. Miller met, a coin was thrown up, Dahlgren winning the toss and choosing the south goal with the wind. At 3:20 Winona kicked off to Byrne, who advanced the ball 5 yards. Line bucks by Larson and Tourtelotte netted 6 yards and Capt. Dahlgren punted to Burke, who returned to 10 yards. Winona then started a grand rush for the La Crosse goal, but after several gains through the line lost the ball on a fumble, Mueller recovering it. A forward pass failed and La Crosse was penalized 15 yards on the next play. La Crosse fumbled, Winona getting the ball on the La Crosse 40 yard line. A forward pass netted 10 yards and Winona took 5 more through center. A forward pass gave them 3 more. The next play around the end gave them first down, but the La Crosse boys then held for two downs and Winona attempted a drop kick from the 23 yard line, but the kick went wide. Dahlgren punted out from the 25 yard line to the center of the field, three attempts at the line failed and the ball went to La Crosse.

Byrne went around the end for 8 yards and Jack Dahlgren added 15 more at the same place. Jungbluth netted yards on a tackle play.

Winona held on the next play and Dahlgren punted to the 20 yard line to Burke, who returned the punt to Dahlgren. He tried for a fair catch, but Field Judge E. Tawney objected. Two attempts at the Winona line failed and Dahlgren punted to Burke who returned to 5 yards. A forward pass netted 5 yards, but he failed on the next play and punted to Bryan. Capt. Dahlgren punted to the Winona 20 yard line to Burke, who again returned the punt to Dahlgren on the 40 yard line. Another exchange of punts netted La Crosse 10 yards and successive line bucks and trick plays brought the ball to the Winona 10 yard line, but Winona held and took the ball, punting it out of danger. After two unsuccessful attempts at the line Dahlgren punted to the Winona 15 yard line. La Crosse held for two downs and Winona punted but Tourtelotte blocked the kick, recovering the ball on the 10 yard line. Winona again held and punted to the center of the field. La Crosse returned the ball 10 yards. Here the ball exchanged hands several times and Dahlgren finally punted to the Winona 15 yard line. A fumble gave the ball to La Crosse and a fake play netted 3 yards, but before the ball was in play again time was called with the ball in La Crosse's possession on the Winona 12 yard line. Score first half, La Crosse 0, Winona 0.

Second Half.

During the intermission Coach Benetz gave the boys a good calling down and when time was called for the second half they went in with a determination to win.

The second half opened with La Crosse kicking off to Winona, who returned it 10 yards and punted to Fowler, who after dodging the Winona ends, brought it back 15 yards. A forward pass to Mueller netted 5 yards. Larson made it first down and a forward pass again netted 10 yards, but Winona held and Capt. Dahlgren punted to the Winona 10 yard line. In two attempts at the line Winona netted 8 yards but punted, Tourtelotte blocking the kick and recovering the ball on the 15 yard line. Larson went through tackle for 3 yards and Dahlgren netted 4 more through center, but on the next attempt La Crosse failed, Winona taking the ball, and attempting to punt from behind the goal. Jungbluth broke through and blocked it, downing the ball for the first touchdown. Capt. Dahlgren kicked a difficult goal. Score, Winona 0, La Crosse 6.

Tawney Butts In.

Winona kicked off to Jungbluth, who returned it 3 yards. Dahlgren attempted to punt and was blocked. Winona recovering the ball an exchange of punts and netted La Crosse 10 yards. Winona failed to gain and punted to Fowler, who returned it 15 yards. La Crosse was penalized for holding and after the ball exchanged hands several times La Crosse finally took possession on the Winona 20 yard line. Fowler went around the end for 10 yards, but La Crosse held on the next two downs and J. Dahlgren went around the end for a touchdown. His brother Capt. Dahlgren pulled him over the line by his hand, but Field Judge E. Tawney again objected, stating that a La Crosse man with a red sweater held some one and the ball had to be taken back. La Crosse was again penalized, but retained possession of the ball. J. Dahlgren made three yards around end. La Crosse failed to gain on the next down and Fowler executed a pretty drop kick from the 15 yard line making the score, La Crosse 10, Winona 0.

Winona kicked off to Fowler who returned it 25 yards. An exchange of punts gave La Crosse 15 yards. La Crosse punted but was penalized. Winona held and La Crosse punted to the 10 yard line. Winona made first down on a forward pass and a line buck, but had to punt. Fowler getting the ball and returning it 5 yards. Capt. Dahlgren punted out of bounds, Winona recovering the ball on their own 10 yard line. While disputing over the ball Winona played a fake trick, running the ball 30 yards, but Field Judge Tawney failed to object. Winona netted 10 more on another fake play, but here La Crosse held and took the ball on a fumble. With the ball at the center of the field Larson went around the end for 25 yards. J. Dahlgren netted 10 more in the same place and F. Novak netted 10 more on a long end run bringing the ball to the 8 yard line. Tourtelotte took 3 over center, Larson 2 more over tackle and J. Dahlgren was sent over for a touchdown.

PENNSY'S FIGHTING BACKFIELD

The University of Pennsylvania is the only eastern collegiate football team aside from the Carlisle Indians which will venture into western territory for a test of strength this season. Pennsy meets the University of Michigan on Perry field in Ann Arbor one week from Saturday. It will be a battle royal for determination of eastern or western football supremacy. At the same time it will give in the western field an opportunity to determine the western championship. Chicago has won the western conference championship, but has no games scheduled with Michigan this season. This leaves the question of Michigan-Chicago supremacy purely a matter of date and Chicago plays the Indians November 23. The Carlisle Indians have defeated Pennsy, therefore Michigan must defeat Pennsy by a far more decisive score than Chicago defeats the Indians if Michigan is to lay claim to another western championship.

The picture above represents Pennsylvania's fighting back field. In the center is Captain Green, right half. The other men with his "P" sweater is Folwell, left half, and the third member of the well known football trio is Hollenback, full back.

OLD SORES FED AND KEPT OPEN BY IMPURITIES IN THE BLOOD

If Old Sores were due to outside influences, or if the cause was confined strictly to the diseased flesh around the ulcer, then external treatment and simple cleanliness would cure them. But the trouble is in the blood, which has become unhealthy and diseased, and keeps the sore open by continually discharging into it the impurities and poisons with which the circulation is filled. This poisonous condition of the blood may be the remains of some constitutional trouble; the effect of a long spell of sickness, or because the natural refuse of the body, which should pass off through the proper avenues, has been left in the system and absorbed into the blood. Again, the cause may be hereditary; but it does not matter how the poison becomes entrenched in the blood, the fact that the sore will not heal is evidence of a deep underlying cause. Salves, washes, lotions, etc., may cause the place to scab over temporarily, but the blood is not made any purer by such treatment, and soon the old inflammation and discharge will return and the sore be as bad or worse than before. S. S. S. goes down to the very bottom of the trouble, cleanses and purifies the blood, and makes a permanent cure. S. S. S. enriches and freshens the circulation so that instead of discharging unhealthy matter into the place, it carries rich, tissue-building, flesh-healing blood to the diseased parts and in every way assists in a natural cure of the sore. ### MUTH IS STILL A SUPERVISOR

According to a decision rendered by District Attorney Otto Bosshard the council went beyond its authority in declaring the office of supervisor in the Twenty-first ward vacant, and electing Alderman Peter Muenzenberger to succeed Peter Muth, Jr., who has removed from the ward. Mr. Muth is still a qualified representative of the ward in the board of supervisors and will remain a member of that body while he resides in this county, according to Mr. Bosshard's interpretation of the law. The decision was rendered in response to a request of County Clerk Rawlinson.

WHAT CLEVELAND MEANT.

In his correspondence to the Record-Herald "Sunner," that newspaper's Washington correspondent, says in a discussion of the recent elections:

"As to the Cleveland election, it is asserted by Ohioans here that Mr. Burton as picked to run against Johnson because he was the only man who could stand a show of winning. They think he did make a better showing than anyone else would have made again, the present mayor. Mr. Burton is credited with a desire to come to the United States senate some day, and he is the field marshal of the anti-Foraker forces. It is expected that Foraker and his friends will attempt to make capital out of Burton's defeat, and revive their fight against Taft to every degree possible."

That is a bad guess, but if nothing more serious than another eruption from Foraker were to result, it would matter little. The Record-Herald is an independent newspaper with a republican leaning. Here I, what the Milwaukee Free Press, another republican newspaper, admits:

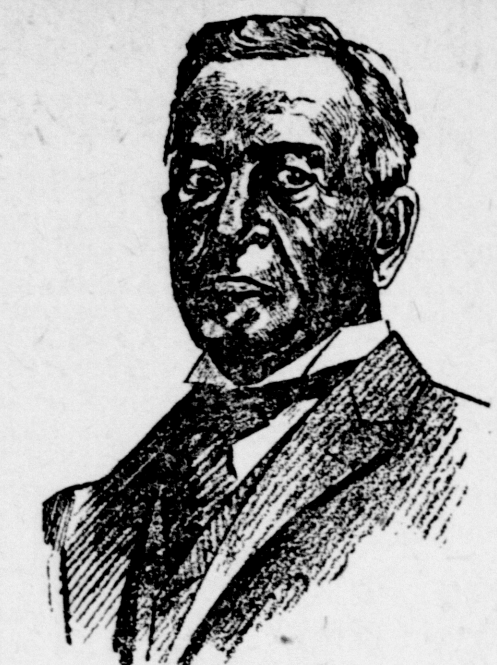

"It is a trifle early to pass judgment on the results in two localities upon which the national gaze was riveted, viz., New York, where the republican and Hearst's 'Independence League' fused against Tammany, and Cleveland, where Repre-

ATTORNEY FRANK W. HAMMELL.

At least one monopoly exists with the sanction of legal authority. Attorney Frank W. Hammell not only has a corner on the biggest combination of probate business in this country, but he also probably holds the world's record as an administrator of the largest number of estates and the record for furnishing the greatest number of bonds in connection therewith. It happened this way. The central branch of the National Military home is located at Dayton, Ohio. As the soldiers die each year it frequently develops that they leave considerable property. Passing away alone and practically unknown, the probating of this property becomes considerable of a conundrum. Frequently a bank book or a note to some friend is the only clue which leads to the discovery of a modest fortune. Attorney Hammell has been appointed by Judge Dale of Montgomery, county probate court administrator of $4,322 of these estates. He has furnished $3,200,000 in bonds to qualify. The task is a gigantic one, and along with the advantage of attaining this world record Attorney Hammell has also taken a mor

MEN OF NOTE

Uriel Sebree

Rear Admiral Uriel Sebree of the United States navy was born at Fayette, Mo., on Feb. 20, 1848, and received his early education at the schools in his native town. He graduated at the Naval academy in 1867 and served aboard various naval vessels until he received the grade of captain in 1901. Admiral Sebree married Miss Annie Bridgman of New York state in 1885. He was sent on an Arctic exploration trip in 1873 and later accompanied the Greeley relief expedition to the far north in 1884. He commanded the battleship Wisconsin during 1903 and 1904. He will command the four big armored cruisers Tennessee, Washington, California and South Dakota on the Pacific cruise.

Representative Burton had been selected by President Roosevelt, and was backed by the influence of the administration, to run against Tom Johnson for mayor. In both cases the republicans were beaten, and they probably ought to have been. This does not strengthen Roosevelt, and does not help anybody but the democrats. It will probably not help them much.

As to the outcome of the Cleveland fight it didn't help anybody, politically, much. That was not the stake for which the people played, even if the "men higher up" did. But it helped the cause of good government, which is something. Mr. Burton "butted in," and he is entitled to no sympathy. He has been a force for good government in public life, but he did not represent good government in the Cleveland campaign. He was merely the tool of the president and the secretary of war, in a scheme by which, disregarding the great good Mayor Johnson has done, they sought to eliminate an exemplary official of the opposing party in order that his city might come into the republican column. They lost. They should have lost. And there is some reason for satisfaction in the thought that if Roosevelt and Burton had anything to gain by winning, they had as much to lose by losing, and that what they lost Johnson and the honest element in democracy gained.

But the great gain was the thing that the people gained, and in that gain there must not be ignored the independence that inspires a community to repudiate even so great a force as Roosevelt, in a good cause. That independence is the safety of the nation.

There will be general satisfaction if the department of justice finds a way to make some of the ambitious and unscrupulous "bankers" of Wall street suffer for the suffering and loss their wild-cat financial antics have cost others.

Another plot against the czar has been frustrated by his vigilant custodians. These gentlemen of the star evidently don't propose to lose their jobs through incapacity as press agents, even under that embarrassing censorship system.

The Knox boom again! And yet the detonations of that noisy affair have never been heard and are known only by grace of hearsay evidence from some of the candidate's "up-state" politicians.

Since the government investigation has disclosed the methods of that daring Heinze institution it may be appropriate to revise its title thus: "The Improvident Life."

New Jersey went $0.00 for Roosevelt last time and but $8,000 for Fort this time. And still the difference amounts to naught.

The Old Melodrama.

Above the howling of the wolves the heroine's shrill voice rang over the pasteboard mountains.

"Give me those papers," she screeched, "or I shall tear out my hair! Do you hear, Roycroft Rolingston?"

The heavy villain displayed his white teeth and rolled another cigarette.

"Yes, Julia Livingstone, I hear very distinctly," he replied, in measured tones; "but do be careful little girl. You know the last time you bought your hair they said they were afraid they couldn't match it any more."

Crushed to the earth, the poor heroine threw herself to the mercy of the mechanical wolves.—Chicago News.

SPOTLIGHTS

"Woodland" Tomorrow
"Woodland," which Henry W. Savage will present here tomorrow evening at the La Crosse theatre is by Pixley and Luders, the authors of "King Dodo" and "The Prince of Pilsen."

The idea of melody is always associated with birds, so in building an opera in which the characters are all members of feathered tribe it may be readily imagined that some happy results have been worked out by the authors. While the night-heron, the lark, the canary, the wren and the robin suggest music, and they will be found in "Woodland," the raven, the blue jay, the rooster, and the owl, not one of which is noted for special musical endowments, but appeal to the humorous side, will also be found in this most delightful forest fantasy, and a quaint, melodious and merry entertainment is assured. A double orchestra will provide the music.

FASHION HINTS

(By May Manton.)

5817 Misses' Blouse, 14 and 16 years.

Pretty, simple blouses such as this one are in demand at all seasons of the year. They are made both from lingerie materials and from pretty soft silks and are eminently desirable additions to the wardrobe. This season there is a great fancy for crepe de Chine, the color to match the coat suit, and for blouses of this sort no better design possibly could be found. Lace of matching color or any pretty banding can be used as trimming and some very charming and youthful effects are obtained by the application of Chinese or Japanese embroideries on dark colors. In this instance, however, fine white lawn is trimmed with German Valenciennes lace. The three-quarter sleeves continue to be the favorite for blouses of this sort and the trimming that is continued onto the sleeves gives the desired effect of breadth.

The blouse is made with the plain, smooth yoke and the full front and backs that are gathered and joined thereto. The sleeves are of moderate fullness, finished with band cuffs and there is a stock collar at the neck while the closing is made invisibly at the back.

The quantity of material required for the 16 year size is 3 1/2 yards 21, 2 1/4 yards 27 or 1 3/4 yards 44 inches wide with 6 1/2 yards of insertion and 1 1/2 yards of edging.

The pattern 5817 is cut in sizes for girls of 14 and 16 years of age and will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper on receipt of ten cents. (If in haste send an additional two cent stamp for letter postage which insures more prompt delivery.)

THE AGE OF ANN.

(The Commoner.)

President Roosevelt celebrated his forty-ninth anniversary Sunday, October 27. Referring to this fact a writer in the New York World says, "Of the elected presidents of the United States, Washington was fifty-seven when inaugurated; disregarding the odd months, Adams and Jackson were sixty-one, Jefferson, Madison and J. Q. Adams fifty-seven, Monroe fifty-eight, Van Buren and McKinley fifty-four, Polk forty-nine, Taylor sixty-four, Pierce forty-eight, Buchanan sixty-five, Lincoln fifty-two, Hayes fifty-four, Garfield forty-nine, Cleveland forty-seven, Benjamin Harrison fifty-five. The oldest elected president installed was William Henry Harrison at sixty-six. The youngest, Grant at forty-six. The average age of the twenty elected presidents when inaugurated was above fifty-six years, including the odd months. Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Jackson, Lincoln, Grant, Cleveland and McKinley were inaugurated in second terms at an average age of sixty, odd months included. Grant was inaugurated for the second time was the youngest re-elected president—not quite fifty-one. Of presidents reaching their office by way of the vice presidency, Tyler was fifty-one, Fillmore fifty, Johnson fifty-six, Arthur fifty; average age, odd months included, about fifty-two and one-third. Mr. Roosevelt himself was not quite forty-three when he became president upon McKinley's death. He was inaugurated in 1905 at forty-six. Upon the 4th of March, 1909, Mr. Roosevelt will be fifty years, or months and seven days old, two years younger than the average age of presidents promoted from the vice presidency, six years younger than the average of first-elected presidents, ten years younger than the average of presidents beginning a 'second elective term.'

OF HUMAN INTEREST

I suppose everyone who takes the "Ladies' Home Journal" is liable to read of the great work being done by the International Sunshine Society under the direction of Mrs. Cynthia Westover Alden of New York City. Particularly appealing seems to be the effort of the society toward the helping of blind babies, those poor little unfortunates who must sit in darkness, and of whom many grow imbecile from want of care and teaching.

We here in La Crosse don't likely come into contact with as much real distress as is found in New York and Chicago—our city is not burdened with the sin, sorrow and in consequence—sickness that fairly overwhelm these crowded centers, but still there is always the chance for the helping hand and the kind action, no matter where we are.

What a beautiful work it is, this care for the blind children and how it ought to receive hearty co-operation from all, especially those who in addition to kindness of heart, are in a position to help financially. We cannot all give money but we can all help along a good cause by kindly encouragement.

When we think of the vast amount of money spent practically for foolishness, it does make one think that it is rather unjust and sad that in the blind babies' home in Brooklyn, where tiny mites that are born blind are cared for, twenty-five are in the home and one hundred are on the waiting list for lack of funds.

During the past week I have had the privilege (among other delightful privileges) of personally meeting and conversing with one of the national officers of the International Sunshine Society, and you have no idea of the magnitude of the blessed good work that is being done all over the United States by the dear boys and girls of this country.

Starting from a tiny beginning, from just a thought, it has grown until its ramifications reach far and wide, and the amount of good done can likely never be estimated.

VINDICATION OF ROOSEVELT

(New York Press.)

The gentlemen who, each time that they judge President Roosevelt's standing with the public, have a positive genius for falling into greater error than the time before never made a wider guess than their latest assumption that the panic of the other day has ruined his popularity and ended the national movement for public control of the corporations. The gambler who has had his speculative stocks closed out at a loss because he could not put up more margin, the high financier who has been fung out of the banking institution whose resources he has misused for his private ventures, and the limited class of little fellows who are more or less engaged in the same business, either as tools or emulators of the bigger ones, have no doubt, since the market has smashed and the people have shown concern over the management of their depositories, that a violent public reaction has set in against Mr. Roosevelt. Nothing could be further from the truth. Everything that has happened has been taken by the people of the United States to be a complete vindication of President Roosevelt and of the program which the American people have embraced.

A pretty girl's cheek goes for more than its face value.

THE GIANT'S STRENGTH

BY BASIL KING

Copyrighted by Harper & Bros.)

"Look here! Do you mean to tell me that you think of marrying my child and supporting her out of your miserable painter's pittance?"

"Since you choose to put it so—yes."

"Then you're mad. It's out of the question. It's preposterous. She's lived like a princess all her life. She'd spend in a day all that you could give her in a year."

"I think not. I think she'd be content with what I could offer her."

"But for the love of Heaven, why should she? Here's money to squander, money to throw away, money to burn up—"

"It's money I couldn't touch. It's money I couldn't allow my wife to touch. It's money for which too many wretched men are still clamoring. It's the money for which too many beggared men are still cursing the sound of your name. It's the money that came when old Marshall, of Turtonville, shot himself, and Rawson, of Fitchburg, hanged himself, and Brewer, of Albany, went mad, and Bennett, of Cleveland, became a forger, and Jackson, of Ohio, stabbed your agent and got penal servitude for life, and Lewis, of Philadelphia, died a drunkard, and Barnes—"

"That's enough!" Trafford cried, sternly holding up his hand.

"I know it's enough," Winship threw back. "I could go on with the list and make it much longer without mentioning my own father's name. But that's enough. You can finish it, no doubt, for yourself. Such names are not easily forgotten."

Trafford sprang to his feet and strode away from the group. With his hands behind his back and his head bent, he took two or three paces across the room. Marah had scarcely changed her position since the conversation began. Laura sat biting her lip and looking at the floor. George, grasping the arms of his chair, was like a bull-dog held in leash and straining to spring at the man opposite, who was, apparently, the least concerned among them all.

"You're a clever man, Mr. Winship," he said, tapping with his fingers on the table. "You're an ingenious man. You've had a blow to strike at me, and you've chosen the weapon you knew to be the sharpest."

"I didn't choose it," Winship returned quietly. "It came into my hand."

"But you know how it cuts."

"Yes, I do know that."

"And you have no scruple about thrusting the blade in."

"The whole world has learned from you, Mr. Trafford, that scruples belong only to the weak."

"I see what you've been working round to," Trafford went on, musingly. "I see it now. I see. I see. I see the whole game."

"It isn't a game," Winship corrected—"it's a situation."

"It's more adroit than I thought at first. The worst of which I could suspect you was the plan of marrying my daughter in order to get her money. That would have been a bitter pill enough for me. That ought to have given you an ample revenge. But this is—what shall I say?—this is so clever as to be nearly devilish."

"I must call your attention again to the fact that the circumstances are not of my making, but your own. I didn't seek your daughter. I must say again and again that we were brought together in consequence of your own acts. That's natural enough. But I can't touch your money. No honorable man could. It's blood-money. But, there again, if that knife cuts you, it's one of your own forgings, not of mine. It isn't the first time the conquered have avenged by the very cruelty of the conquest. Io Victis is a song the world has heard over and over again."

"Humph! Blood-money! It's blood-money, is it? And you want my child to say so."

"I want her to be true to what I know are already her own high and holy convictions."

"You want her to choose between you and me, before the world. Then, by God! she shall," he cried bringing his fist down upon the table.

He marched to the end of the long room, and threw open a door.

"Paula!" he called, loudly. "Paula, come here!"

When he rejoined the group he was very pale. Instinctively they all rose as Paula appeared in the doorway.

For an instant she seemed to hesitate, her dark figure framed in the arch of white and gold. Then she came forward a step or two, and paused. She seemed doubtful of what they expected her to do. They could see that her eyes were aglow, her cheeks delicately flushed, and her lips parted in a half-smile. She was in black, with a row of black pearls in the fringe around her throat.

The silence and immobility with which the group about the table regarded her approach soon began to bewilder her. She looked from one to another questioning, and her smile faded.

"What is it?" she asked, pausing again before she had quite reached them.

"Paula, my child," Trafford said, "I've given my consent to your marriage with Mr. Winship, and I've not withdrawn it."

The half-smile came back. Her eyes sought Winship's; then the droop of the long, black lashes hid them again.

"But Mr. Winship," Trafford pursued, "is not satisfied with my consent. He asks for more."

"No, not for more," Winship corrected. "I ask for nothing."

"Mr. Winship asks for so little,

dear, that it becomes significantly much.
"I don't understand at all, papa."
"Then I'll put it to you plainly. Mr. Winship is ready to marry you, but you must come to him empty-handed."
"I shouldn't care," she said, promptly. "I don't mind about the money—not at all. I know what Roger means. He wants every one to see that it's for myself—not for anything else."
"That isn't quite his motive, dear. But perhaps he could explain it better than I can. Will you be good enough," he added, turning to Winship, "to tell my daughter why it is that you'd shut her out from the provision I've worked so hard to save for her?"

"If Miss Trafford is willing to make the sacrifice it seems to me the explanation becomes unnecessary."

"I don't understand at all, papa,"—I really don't."

"I think you'd better have it, none the less," Trafford insisted. "If he won't give it, I will. Mr. Winship will not touch my money, nor allow you to touch it, because it's blood-money."

"Oh, don't papa," the girl pleaded. "Don't tell me."

"I must tell you, dear. The time has come when you've got to make a choice—when you've got to decide between my enemies and me."

"But Rogers isn't your enemy," "You'll see. He wants you to stand forth before the world and declare that, in your opinion, I am a robber, an assassin—"

THE SPECTATOR ON ORIENTALS

(Milwaukee Journal.)

For a month there have been no serious outbreaks on the coast against the orientals.

This is as it should be. Thinking men of every section know that lawlessness and riot serve no purpose. Congress meets next month. What will congress do?

It is not unlikely that we shall hear speeches which excel in sentiment. America will be held up as the haven of the oppressed and down-trodden of every land.

However, this may be, we point congress to a recent utterance of the London Spectator. There is no incitement here, no radicalism, no frenzy. But we believe that what the Spectator says is true, and that congress cannot do better than to realize it.

"Much as we respect the Japanese," says this quiet English periodical, "much as we detest the usual phenomena of racial and color prejudice, we are bound to say that in the last resort we cannot wonder that the self-governing English-speaking communities of the empire are determined to remain white men's countries, with all that that involves, and will not run the risk of letting the land they live in and the land they love be made the ground for an experiment which has never been tried in history, the experiment of a community of mixed European and Asiatic blood, founded on a mixture of the social, religious and moral ideals of the two continents."

Katherine Keating of Chicago is suing the Nelson-Morris Packing company for $50,000 for the loss of two fingers. A La Crosse man settled at a cheaper figure.

Under Suspicion.
A janitor in a neighboring school threw up his job the other day. When asked what was the trouble, he said, "I'm honest and won't stand being slurred. If I find a pencil or a handkerchief 'bout the school I hang it up. Every little while the teacher or someone that is too cowardly to face me, gives me a slur."

"In what way?" asked the officer.

"Why, a little while ago I saw written on the board, 'find the common multiple.' Well, I looked from cellar to garret, and I wouldn't know the thing if I met it on the street. What made me quit my job? Last night in big writin' on the blackboard, it said, 'find the greatest common divisor.' Well, I says to myself, both of them darn things are lost now, and I'll be blamed for swipin' 'em, so I'll quit."—Cashton Record.

VAUDEVILLE STUNT ON THIS EVENING

EMPIRE OPENS TONIGHT WITH A NEW FEATURE

GOOD PERFORMERS SECURED

Musical Attractions Will Be Best Ever With Three-Act Irish Sketch
by Brandon, Harvey & Brandon

Tomorrow evening the opening of the Empire vaudeville theater will take place. A vaudeville show which will include some leading people of the profession, will be put on and every effort is being made on the part of Messrs. Brandon and Ticknor, the managers, to give the people a first class vaudeville show.

P. C. Diedrick, a well known musician, of no little ability, will render the overture. Master Harvey, the boy soprano, will render a number of popular songs.

The feature of the entire bill will be the appearance of Sig. Coyanti, violinist and novelty musical artist. Sig. Coyanti has played on all of the leading circuits throughout the country as well as at the leading independent houses. His act is said to be, by those who have seen it, one of the best ever put on and he will no doubt be the great drawing card.

Brandon, Harvey and Brandon will appear in a three-act sketch entitled "Mike, the Irish Schemer." Walter Bussler will render a number of illustrated songs.

The moving pictures this week will be something entirely new here. The management has made arrangements whereby every lady in Onalaska will be presented with a free ticket for the Friday night performance of this week. Matinees are to be held every Saturday and Sunday afternoon for the benefit of the women and children who find it impossible to attend the evening performances.

There will also be an amateur night, and this will be held Fridays. On this date all the local talent will appear and their acts will no doubt add much to the performance.

Starvation Sits At Loaded Tables

You Can Lead a Dyspeptic to The Table, but You Cannot Make Him Eat.

There comes a time in the lives of a great many men and women when even a sirocco breeze ceases to be poetry. It becomes a protest. The appetite becomes fussy and fretful. Nothing on the bill of fare can coax it.

The appetite is there and yet it isn't. This makes eating a mere matter of machinery—the mouth doesn't water. The stomach has been worked overtime, and the body and the brain are paying the penalty.

There are thousands of people in every station of life who are walking the earth to-day with dyspeptic stomachs. They wear a dejected, forlorn appearance, their energy is as zero, nothing interests them, and they interest no one; their faces are shrunk, their nerves are wretched and their shoulders sag. Everything on the table may look delicious, but nothing will be tempting. That's one sure sign of dyspepsia.

If you have ever felt bloated after eating and imagined it was your food that filled you, if you have felt the food lie like a lump of lead on your stomach; if you have had a bad, sour breath, difficulty in breathing after a meal, suffered from eructations, burning sensations, heart burn, flatulency, gas on the stomach, make up your mind you have dyspepsia. And the chances are you have had it a long time.

Your stomach is overworked, abused, fagged out. The gastric and digestive juices are weak; the muscles of the stomach are jaded, and the whole business needs new life. It needs something which will take hold of the food as it comes in and do the digesting, and let your stomach take a rest. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do that very thing. They contain a most powerful ingredient which helps the stomach in the process of digestion, cures dyspepsia, sour stomach, indigestion, heartburn, eructations, acidity or fermentation. They invigorate the stomach, increase the flow of gastric juice, and do two-thirds of what the stomach would have to do without them. That gives the stomach some rest and a chance to get right again.

You will feel the change first in your mind and heart and then over your whole body. You'll feel rosy and sweet. That's the object. You can get these effective little tablets almost anywhere on earth for 50c a package.

Send us your name and address to-day and we will at once send you by mail a sample package free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

ELLISON IS PLEASED OVER WATER OUTLOOK

Capt. J. F. Ellison.

The National Rivers and Harbors Congress convention will hold its first meeting in Washington, D. C., December 4, 5 and 6. In an interview with Acting Secretary Capt. J. F. Ellison of Cincinnati, Ohio, yesterday he expressed his appreciation of the support rendered this project from every section of the United States. He said in part as follows:

"Already 28 states have expressed their intention of sending to the convention delegates to represent them. In addition to this the mayors of many of the principal cities are to be in attendance and so we are assured in advance of a strong representative body of men. Baron Speck Von Sternberg, the German ambassador and M. Jusserand, the French ambassador, have accepted invitations to address the convention on waterways improvements in their respective countries. Governor Hoke Smith of Georgia, Governor Albert B. Cummins of Iowa and Hon. Gustav H. Schwab, general manager of the North German Lloyd Steamship company, New York, will speak for two great international maritime interests. Our Rivers and Harbors congress, while making no objection, and while supporting all other great appropriation bills, believes and will demand that a more just proportion of the revenue of the country than has heretofore been used in the interests of commerce (3 per cent) be expended for the benefit of commerce in the future in opening up the natural highways and gateways, the rivers and harbors."

Two complaints against town of Bangor farmers, for delivering milk to creameries which had been skimmed of a portion of the cream, or did not contain the minimum amount of required butter fat, were made today by P. A. Larsen, deputy dairy inspector for La Crosse county and western Wisconsin. Two warrants were issued.

G. Peterson, Bangor, Wis., must answer to the charge of delivering milk to the Dutch Creek cheese factory on Oct. 29. Larsen alleges that the milk had been skimmed of a portion of the cream.

H. Peterson must answer to having delivered milk on Oct. 29 to the same company. Here it is alleged that the milk failed to contain the required minimum of 3 per cent butter fat.

The warrants were delivered to Sheriff Burris for service, and the defendants will be arrested and tried this week.

COUNTY BUILDING IS POORLY HATED

That chilly question, which bobs up each autumn when the cold north winds begin to blow, "why isn't the county building warm?" made its appearance this morning. Various temperatures, from 50 to 60 degrees, in many of the offices was the cause of the complaint.

In the office of Register of Deeds Aiken a temperature of 54 degrees was recorded, and the employees were unable to work. In the office of Clerk of the Court Russel Smith, a temperature of 58 degrees was recorded at 11 o'clock, but a rising thermometer was reported.

In the other offices in the building, a temperature far from comfortable was found, but work was carried out.

Several delegations of employees made an "inspection" of the boiler room, and were promised more heat. This afternoon the building was comfortable, thermometers showing 70 degrees.

A WOMAN'S WORDS OF HEARTFELT PRAISE

"I think Father John's Medicine is the best remedy for all coughs and lungs or bronchial troubles. I have it in the house all the time, it always helps my colds. My mother had a bad cough and my medicine has helped her cough a great deal," writes Mrs. Robert Peel, 4841 Franklin St., Frankford, Phila.

Remember Father John's Medicine is not a patent medicine, but the prescription of the eminent specialist who prescribed it for the late Rev. Father John O'Brien by whom it was recommended and from whom it derived its name. It is free from opium, morphine or any of the poisoning, nerve-deadening drugs or weakening stimulants upon which 99 per cent, of patent medicines, so-called cough syrups and balsams depend for their temporary effect, and which are dangerous—you are warned against them. 50 years in use.

BAPTIST CHORUS CROWDS EDIFICE

SUNDAY SCHOOL IS NOW THE LARGEST IN THE CITY

NINETY VOICES JOIN IN MUSIC

Rev. J. W. Hoag Delivers Strong Sermon on the Greatest Loss Man Can Endure.

The services at the First Baptist church last night again attracted a crowded house. Every available seat and chair was occupied and people sat on the steps during the entire exercises.

The large chorus of 90 voices was in its place as had been announced, and crowded to overflowing the two platforms built for its use. Each added appearance of the chorus discloses marked improvement in the singing. The special number sung last night was particularly well rendered and was most pleasing in its effect at the close as the young men of the chorus whistled the last verse, while the young ladies sang the words. Another special number was the gospel, solo by Miss Mahlum. The singer was given breathless attention and her clear, earnest musical message made a distinct impression on the audience. The "Song of the Reds" also furnished a pleasing feature in the song service. The song was written especially for the Sunday school contest between the "Reds" and the "Blues." Rev. Hoag announced that at the session of the school yesterday the largest number had been in attendance in the history of the church. He also claimed for the Baptist church the largest Sunday school in the city, with the possible exception of the German Lutheran church. Mr. Hoag asked for a hearty singing of the "Song for the Reds" to arouse enthusiasm for the school and also as a token of victory to the "Blues," who were ahead in the contest. These different features furnished a helpful song service and appeared to be most pleasing to the large crowd. The musical instruments assisting in the service were the pipe organ, a piano, two violins and a trombone.

Telegraphing under date of Nov. 9 the correspondent says:

"The town of Karatagh was completely destroyed. The victims number about 14,000 in Karatagh and about 10,000 in the adjoining district of Densauk. All the villages in the vicinity were wrecked."

"It is probable that there are hundreds more dead in these villages, but investigation is only now determining the approximate number."

WOMAN IS DEAD

Mary Day Williams died, Nov. 2, 1907, at her home in this place. She was born of parents connected with the early settlement and history of Ellipticville, and at that time character was developed by the more hardy and rugged experiences of life.

She was the eldest daughter of Dr. Thomas J. and Abigail P. Williams. Possessed of a bright Christian character, she early in life united with the Presbyterian church in the place of her nativity, and to which faith she earnestly and devoutly adhered through life, giving of her time and strength in later years to those who were in sorrow and suffering.

While in active life she was for many years engaged in teaching in Ellipticville and later in La Crosse, Wis., thereby leaving an impress for good of greatest influence upon the lives and characters of many of her pupils.

She was a person of more than ordinary intelligence and literary tastes, and her wide range of reading made her bright and social qualities the delight of all her friends, making her memory sweet to all who knew her best and loved her most.

She leaves to mourn her going many kind friends, two sisters, Mrs. John Meloy and Miss Katherine R. Williams of Olean, and one brother, Edward T. Williams of Ellipticville, —Ellipticville (N. Y.) Post.

Miss Williams was the niece of the late Mrs. Frances W. Wheeler and spent a number of years in her family. She was a member of the First Presbyterian church of this city and had a large circle of friends in the church. Though it is many years since she was here, there are still a number of her old friends who will remember her, and will regret to hear of her death.

FEEL "STUPID"
Brain Troubled by Coffee.

People don't like to be considered stupid even if they feel that way, but many persons who persist in drinking coffee, year after year, have spells when they feel like thick idiots.

"I have been badly bothered with stomach trouble caused by coffee for many years," writes a Ky man, "and many times felt like a 'stupid,' with a severe burning in my stomach after eating, and a great amount of sour belching."

"Four months ago I quit coffee and began to use Postum instead. I have had none of the old trouble since, have gained flesh and I don't think I have failed to eat a hearty meal since I quit coffee."

"I feel I can't praise Postum enough for the change it has made in me. I did not like it so well at first, didn't boil it enough, now we boil it according to directions on pkg., and I like it as well as coffee, which I shall never use again." MRS C. E. TUCKER
GETS A DIVORCE

Mrs. Charlotte E. Tucker, 1310 Winnebago street, was granted a divorce from her husband, David W. Tucker, formerly employed by one of the largest of La Crosse mercantile institutions in a responsible position, on the ground of desertion, Friday afternoon. At present the whereabouts of Tucker are unknown, but it is believed he is living in Minneapolis.

Mrs. Tucker alleged that she was deserted in Aug., 1904, and that her husband has not returned to her. Alimony in the sum of $10 per month was allowed by Judge Fruit in his decree.

Mr. and Mrs. Tucker were married in Oct., 1876, at Angola, Erie county, New York. They have four children, all of age, Mabel Tucker, Josephine Tucker, Harvey Tucker and Alfonso Tucker.

Since leaving his wife, the petition alleges, Tucker has secured a position with a large firm of Minneapolis, Minn., as traveling salesman.

MAN TO DUBUQUE

J. D. Bogue, an employe of the Chicago and Northwestern railroad on the construction work at Kendalls, Wis., passed through La Crosse Saturday enroute to his home in Dubuque in the care of his aunt, Mrs. B. Bogue.

Doctors stated his back was broken and he was given medical treatment at that place and later taken to a hospital at Elroy. Attending doctors gave the man up and he is now being taken to the Mercy hospital at Dubuque by his aunt in hopes of saving his life.

He is delirious most of the time," stated Mrs. Bogue. "We were not notified of the accident until a week ago, but he does not recognize us. We are now taking him to Dubuque to Mercy hospital in hopes of saving his life, but the doctors state he cannot live a month."

ORATOR ARRESTED; ILLEGAL VOTING

Congressman W. Burke Cochran.

One of the most famous public men in American life now knows the sensation of arrest. By strange happenstance he was taken in custody on this week's election day in Greater New York and taken before a police magistrate to answer to the charge of illegal voting. The incident is made nationally interesting because of the fact that Cochran himself is one of the most eloquent orators America has ever produced and one of the strongest men in the national house of representatives. As a matter of fact Cochran was in jeopardy only a few moments. It appears that he formerly lived at 310 East Seventeenth street, but while congress has been in session he has been in Washington and since it adjourned he has been living at Newport. He claimed the right, however, to vote from his old New York residence. The arrest was made on a warrant issued on an affidavit by a servant in the house at 310 East Seventeenth street. The police magistrate issued the warrant on the impression that somebody was trying to vote under the name of the congressman and he was the most surprised man in the American metropolis when he saw Cochran appear in person in court as a prisoner. Cochran was promptly discharged by the magistrate, but not until the attorney general's office had announced the arrest as an outrage.

BRYAN WON'T COME TO THIS CITY

In the revised itinerary of William Jennings Bryan, former democratic presidential candidate, issued by H. H. Manson, Wausau, Wis., chairman of the state democratic central committee, La Crosse is not included. Copies of the itinerary were received today by prominent local democrats, who have been exerting every effort in the last two months to secure the Lincoln, Neb., orator.

Train schedules are partly the cause for La Crosse being dropped from the itinerary. The original plans included an address in La Crosse, on Friday night, Nov. 15, but train connections would not allow the jump from Beaver Dam, Wis., to La Crosse in an afternoon. Accordingly La Crosse was dropped. This city was the only one in western Wisconsin, where Mr. Bryan was scheduled to speak.

Following is the revised itinerary:

Monday, Nov. 11—Milwaukee. Tuesday, Nov. 12—Afternoon, Beaver Dam; evening, Fond du Lac.

Wednesday, Nov. 13—Wausau. Thursday, Nov. 15—Afternoon, Manitowoc; evening, Sheboygan.

Friday, Nov. 16—Afternoon, Ocon to; evening, Green Bay.

Saturday, Nov. 17—Afternoon, West Bend; evening, Oshkosh.

Banquets have been planned for Mr. Bryan in Milwaukee, Fond du Lac, Wausau and Oshkosh.

NEW SALEM ROAD IS NOW PROBABLE

CITY ENGINEER COMPLETES PLANS AND ESTIMATES

GRADES WILL BE LESSEMED

Proposition for New Highway Between West Salem and Mindoro to be Presented to Board

For the past eight years residents of La Crosse, Mindoro and West Salem, and especially the farmers, who use the road between Mindoro and West Salem have hoped that it would be paved and graded.

This plan is now to be realized. Last week the city engineer and the surveyor laid out the exact location of the road with the grades, and estimates of cost were furnished which will be presented at the meeting of the county board of supervisors at their next meeting.

Plans were drawn for the road last June, but the exact location of it was not decided until last week. The approximate cost of the road making allowance for the contributions which will be received from the various villages is placed at about $10,000.

The surveyor said this morning: "The grade which the road will have when completed will make it easy for automobiles to climb the hill and much easier for the horses of the farmers who use the road continually, and have to drive over the hill with large loads."

The new grade will save about 150 feet in all.

A cut will be made in the "Hogback" of the hill about 65 feet deep, and this will save 150 feet of the climb.

The grade will have a 6 foot rise for every 100 feet traversed, whereas it was all the way from 8 to 12 feet.

The grade will be 6 to the 100 on the south and 5 to the 100 feet on the north side of the hill.

The new location will also shorten the road.

At the June meeting the board as a committee of the whole went on an inspection jaunt over part of the West Salem road and this is now to be a continuation of that road.

The work of grading will no doubt be continued and pushed through some time in December.

INSANE TUTOR SHOOTS RICH WARD

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Paul Gilbert Thoburn, Jr., 17 years old, son of the multi-millionaire broker, is lying with a bullet-hole through his head, very close to death, in his father's magnificent country house, Hillair, at White Plains—the victim of a mysterious plot which threatened to wipe out a dozen lives after he had been taken.

He was shot while he slept, early this morning, by John Bjorling, butler of the house and language tutor to Paul and his little brother, Reynal.

But the sight of his first victim must have brought him out of his murderous mania for when his bullet reached the boy's forehead he paused only a few seconds before turning the revolver upon himself. He fired a ball through his brain and died at once.

JOE GANS GETS BODY BLOW AT THE RYAN

ST. PAUL, Nov. 11.—Joe Gans, lightweight champion of the world, actor and boniface, received a jolt yesterday, which he was not in a position to parry. It was an unlooked for wallop. In fact a certain wise guy slipped one over on Joe when he was expecting it.

The fact is that Joe was refused accommodations at the Ryan hotel after his agent had made arrangements for a room. Three days ago the advance agent of the Washington Society Girls company which is appearing at the Star this week, made arrangements with the Ryan hotel management to accommodate the colored pugilist during his stay in the city. At that time, the agent says, the Ryan managers were perfectly willing to dispense their hospitality to Joe, and so a nice room with bath was selected, and of course he thought everything was settled.

But when Joe walked up to register yesterday an austere looking individual with thin hair and a near mustache told him that there was nothing doing.

"Why not?" asked Joe.

"I really can't accommodate you," said the man back of the counter.

As Joe is peaceful in spite of his pugilistic abilities, he walked out and soon found a room at Scott Walker's, which he says is just as good, anyway.

When asked about the episode last evening the manager of the hotel said: "I didn't know that Gans applied here for a room, and I don't believe he did. We keep the hotel open for every one."

CO. B WANTS A DOWNTOWN ARMORY

Upon learning that Company M is to have a fine armory on South Fourth street upon the site of the Second ward school building, the members of Company B of the Governor's Guard are becoming dissatisfied with the erection of a structure upon their present site near the corner of Sixth and Market streets and wish to have their armory down near the business center of the city so that they may derive revenue from rental of the building.

It is said that they intend to petition the city for the park on King, between Fourth and Fifth streets, so that if their armory is erected there it will be across the street from the Second ward school building armory.

Plans and specifications had already been completed for an armory on the site of the old one, but they have now changed their plans and want one in the centre of the business section of the city.

SWITCHMEN THREATEN TO STRIKE FOR PAY

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—Twenty-five thousand members of the Switchmen's Union of North America today demanded an increase of six cents per hour which was promised recently by the road. The demand was submitted today at a meeting attended by committees representing, besides the switchmen's order, the railway telegraphers, with 30,000 members, and the freight handlers, with 45,000 members, who declared that the two organizations will not be satisfied unless the switchmen are granted the increase. There is talk of the switchmen striking.

PINCHOT MAY GET ONE FOREST WISH

members of congress over a part of the proposed reserve. In the party were Senators Overton of North Carolina and Lattimer of South Carolina. Representative Lovor of South Carolina and Representative Crawford of South Carolina. Several other members of congress were to have accompanied the party, but were not able to do so. They visited the Tonway district in North Carolina, south of Asheville, and the Grandfather Mountain district, also in North Carolina, north of Asheville. In these regions, constituting two of the most important water sheds of the southern Appalachian mountains, very important streams arise. The members of congress who went with Mr. Hall, were pretty well converted to the importance of taking steps to protect the forests and the streams of the regions they visited. It is likely they will have a good word of influence next winter in getting legislation for the establishment of the proposed reserve.

A Preliminary Bill.

The project contemplated in the setting aside of the forest reserve in the Appalachian region is one of great proportions. The bill which congress is expected to pass next winter will be preliminary, defining the limits of the region in which the government is to obtain and segregate forest lands and needing an appropriation of several millions to enter on the purchases. It is likely provision will be made to expend not to exceed a fixed maximum amount every year for a period until all the needed land has been acquired. No estimates are yet placed on the total number of millions that will be required before all the needed land has been bought or on the total number of acres that will be eventually included. Congress last winter appropriated $35,000 for a survey of the region and a report showing the results of this survey, how much land ought to be put in reserve and the estimated cost will be ready at the opening of the session. The whole region of the Appalachian district within which the proposed reserve will lie, includes about 17,000 square miles or 11,000,000 acres. It will not be necessary, however, to purchase this number of acres or any where near that total in order to protect the forests and streams. It is expected state regulation will do a good deal to save the federal government excessive outlay.

FOUR BURN TO DEATH IN BLAZE

MAN AND GRANDCHILDREN ARE THE VICTIMS. Neighbors Unable to Extend Assistance, and Quartette Meet Fate in Raging Flames.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 11.—

Victory was given the Minneapolis chamber of commerce Saturday when Judge F. C. Brooks handed down a decision which prohibits the use of its quotations by independent grain companies. An injunction was asked by the chamber of commerce early last spring and was granted Saturday by the judge after a careful consideration of the case. The chamber of commerce asserted that the independent companies were securing the quotations by telephone or by messenger in the chamber of commerce. These quotations, it asserted, were being posted on the walls of the independent companies under the name of quotations from "The Minneapolis Independent Grain and Stock Exchange." The Superior Board of Trade, and other alleged fictitious organizations. Not Public Property. Several of the defendants did not appear to defend the suit when it was argued before Judge Brooks. Others were present through their attorneys and argued that they had a right to the use of the chamber of commerce quotations after they had been put on the wires and a certain time had elapsed. They denied having stolen the quotations and said they became public property when put on the wires. Judge Brooks, in his decision, holds that the chamber of commerce has the right to the exclusive use of its quotations and that its members have the right to use them exclusively in operating their business. The defendants are enjoined from getting or using the chamber quotations, from transmitting them by wire, and from posting them under the name of any other organization. Withholds One Point. The W. S. Daggett company, one of the defendants, asserted it was entitled to receive "fifteen minute quotations" over the ticker and Judge Brooks reserves his opinion on that point. The defendants to whom Judge Brooks' order is issued are the Langley Commission company, C. L. Bowman & Co., W. S. Zoller & Co., H. G. Thomas & Co., W. S. Daggett & Co., Joseph W. Sullivan, Benjamin C. Elder, John Leakey, Frank Thomas, Northwestern Stock, Bond and Grain Exchange, Andrew Lidell, Michael Shelley, F. C. Bowker, S. S. Johnston, J. E. Wells & Co., the Minneapolis Independent Grain & Stock Exchange, and H. M. Ward.

BUYS 2,000 ACRES OF IOWA FARM LAND

FOREST CITY, Ia., Nov. 11.—A hundred thousand dollar and probably one of the largest deals in Iowa lands this year, was consummated last week with the filing of the deeds for the transfer of 2,000 acres of Winnebago county farm lands. N. L. Isaacs of Thompson, conveying this block of lands to Mr. Brennecke of Marshall county, for the consideration of $116,400, or about $58 per acre. The lands are prairie farms located in the western, or newer, part of this county. Improved farms are included in the transfer. The largest parcel is 500 acres.

ACCIDENT MAKES A WIDOW THRICE

BRainerd, Minn., Nov. 11.—For the third time in her life Mrs. Joseph Scharfen was made a widow as the result of an accident. Her husband, a machinist, was killed in the Northern Pacific shop yard by an engine. His leg and head were crushed and the man died before he was taken from under the engine. Scharfen married Mrs. Anna Reinstant less than a year ago. She had lost both her husbands by fatal accidents. Her only son died a month ago, and the present tragedy resulted in her prostration. Scharfen was a prominent man among the machinists.

IS GEBHARDT'S SLAYER, HE SAYS

SLEEPY EYE, Minn., Nov. 11.—A stranger giving the name of Frank Burg and claiming to be the murderer of the late Dr. Louis A. Gebhardt of New Ulm was taken into custody by Chief of Police Jacobson a day or so ago, and was subsequently given a fifteen-day sentence in the county jail at New Ulm on the charge of drunkenness. He acted somewhat strangely before his arrest, and when taken into custody said that he was on his way to New Ulm to collect the balance due him for killing the late Dr. Gebhardt three years ago. He said that he was the man who did the deed, but that he was not paid in full, and wanted his money. His story is given no credence. Indigestion keeps more people awake at nights than conscience.

DIVORCED AFTER LONG SEPARATION

After a separation of ten years, a divorce was granted Jennie D. Lang from James F. Lang, former turnkey at the county jail. The separation was voluntary. A charge of desertion and non support was made in the complaint.

NORTH SEVENTH STREET RESIDENTS ON WATCH. PEEPS INTO THE WINDOWS. Evidently Young Fellow Wearing Late Fashions—Chased From Hallway of R. B. Mertz's Home.

NEW ULM, Minn., Nov. 11.—

An aged man and his three grandchildren were burned to death in a fire that destroyed their home at noon Saturday. The dead are: Henry Ginner, aged 70 years. Louis Ginner, aged 5 years. Mary Ginner, aged 3 years. Charles Ginner, aged 1 year. Mother is Absent. Henry Ginner was an invalid practically paralyzed by rheumatism. His daughter-in-law, Mrs. Louis Ginner, left home shortly before noon to go to her father's house on an errand, and in order to prevent her children from leaving the house she locked the door. She had not been gone long when Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Karl, neighbors, noticed that the house was in flames. They gave the alarm, but when rescue of the grandfather and the children was attempted it was found that the entire inside of the dwelling was ablaze. Nothing could be done to save the victims. The mother was overcome when she reached home and found the house in flames. It is supposed that the children either played with matches or meddled with the stove and in that way started the fire. As the house is on the outskirts of the city and removed from other houses, the flames were not discovered until they doubtless had brought death to the four persons within.

NORTHWEST BRIEFS

MARSHALLTOWN, Ia.—Owen Bell, aged 22, an ex-convict, who served four years for burglary, was arrested on the same charge, following the Abbott & Son hardware store burglary. The police found jewelry stolen from the E. L. Hoag residence last July.

DESMOINES, Ia.—Harry Grahl, fell nine stories down an elevator shaft and was instantly killed. He was the contractor on the reconstruction at the state house after the fire.

DESMOINES, Ia.—Lafe Young is said to have been summoned to Washington to confer with the president.

DESMOINES, Ia.—All of the coal miners in the Des Moines field, at least, and probably throughout Iowa, will be paid in cash the same as always. The local operators for a time were worried lest the shortage of currency would make it difficult to meet the semi-monthly pay rolls.

OTTUMWA, Ia.—At a meeting of the Iowa Association of Retail Merchants at Des Moines, Ottumwa was selected as the place for holding the next state convention May 26, 27 and 28. Bert B. Jackson of Cedar Rapids and Ira B. Thomas of Des Moines were named as delegates to the national convention to be held in Boston May 11, 12 and 13.

DE WITT, Ia.—The Low Moor Independent-Courier has been purchased by the De Witt Observer and hereafter the papers will be published as one newspaper in the Observer office in this city. Otto Muhs will be the business manager, and editor of the Low Moor department.

MUSCATINE, Ia.—All the saloonkeepers of Muscatine county were summoned in court at which time Judge Jackson interpreted to them the provision of his decree in regard to obstructions in their places of business.

IOWA CITY, Ia.—The will of the late Lawrence Cusack of Oxford has been filed for probate in the office of the county clerk. The document provides that one-third of the estate shall go to the widow, Catherine Cusack, and the remainder is to be divided equally among the children.

MUSCATINE, Ia.—The committee appointed by the members of the Turnverein to select a hall, came to a decision and having power to act, secured the third floor of the Nyenhuis building on Iowa avenue.

MANKATO, Minn.—The city, county and North Mankato are working together with a view to building a second steel bridge across the Minnesota river at this point. The cost is estimated at about $20,000 and the state has appropriated $6,000. The Nicollet county board is to be asked to assist, in which event the bridge is considered assured. The matter is now in the hands of committees of the Blue Earth county board, city council and North Mankato council.

ELDORA, Ia.—East of Eldora in Grundy county, now that the potato harvest is on, the farmers adopt all sorts of labor-saving schemes. John Hess has a large gasoline engine, and coupling some five wagons together he loaded each wagon to the top with the valuable "spuds," and began to haul his train load, as it were, to market. The idea worked out to perfection, and in six trips he hauled to market his 3,000 bushels of tubers and saved more than $90.

Judge Fruit today sustained a demurrer in the divorce action brought by Nellie J. Schnick against her husband, Julius Schnick. Attorney Higbee made the demurrer in behalf of the defendant. Attorney Charles B. Miller will prepare a new complaint.

Hole Torn Through Chest—Recovers and Brings Suit—Judge Upholds the Plaintiff

OSHKOSH, Wis., Nov. 11.—Judgment in the sum of $75,000 was ordered by Judge Burnell in the case of August Yaszewski vs. Christian C. Barker and Herman C. Stewart, in accordance with a verdict rendered by a jury about two weeks ago. The action was tried before Judge Burnell in Ashland county, where the parties reside. It was a personal injury case.

Claim Verdict Excessive.

C. H. VanAlstine, who is associated with H. J. Killilea, in Milwaukee, represented the defendants and argued motions to set aside as contrary to the evidence, the answer to the first question of the special verdict rendered by the jury and to set the entire verdict aside, upon the grounds that the amount of damages rendered was excessive; that the verdict was not in accordance with the testimony and errors in the charge of the court were also alleged. The motion was denied.

Plaintiff Hurt in Mill.

The plaintiff was employed in the mill of the defendants and was working upon an edger. A splinter from a Norway pine plank, eighteen feet long and two inches through, flew from the machine and completely impaled Yaszewski. The splinter entered his chest and came out through his back, projecting about four feet. The man was knocked about sixteen feet by the impact, but was not thrown from his feet. He recovered and is now employed in the mill business.

The case was called before Judge J. K. Parish of Ashland, but an affidavit of prejudice was filed by the defendants and Judge Burnell was called in to try the case.

BEAT DETECTIVES; THEN ARREST THEM

KENOSHA COMPANY'S SLEUTHS ATTACKED

IS TALK OF ARBITRATION

Secretary of State Board Visits Labor Infested City in Effort to Patch Up Temporary Peace

KENOSHA, Wis., Nov. 11.—Labor conditions in Kenosha are becoming more threatening, and following an attack on detectives employed by the Badger Brass company the men have been active and there is fear that there will be an outbreak. Two detectives, George Reed and Frank Poleschowski, of Milwaukee, were attacked by men last night and beaten and later taken into custody by special police officers.

The managers of the plant filed a protest with the mayor and he suspended the powers of the newly appointed members of the force and agreed to appoint disinterested men to guard the plant if he decided it was necessary. In the meantime the detectives who were imported from Milwaukee by the factory managers have been laid off pending the decision of the mayor. All the men now employed at the Badger are being fed there and it is not expected that they will be subjected to any further assaults.

Secretary J. Humphrey of the state board of arbitration came to Kenosha and the men locked out or alleged to be locked out, consented to submit their cause to arbitration, but the managers of the factory told the state officials that they had nothing to arbitrate and that no arbitration plan was being considered by them.

Secretary Humphrey returned to Milwaukee and it is understood that the state board will make no further effort to settle the trouble.

The Badger Brass company has declared unequivocally for an open shop and that the open shop will be maintained at all hazards. The managers of the company claim to have more than a hundred men at work in the plant at this time and that they have ten applications for every position that is vacant or liable to be vacant.

THREE SIMPLE INGREDIENTS.

Mixed Together, Said To Be Fine for Stomach Troubles.

Nine out of every ten people suffer from Stomach Troubles, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Gastritis or Dyspepsia and many from more serious troubles which started originally from one of the above troubles. We should give our stomach more attention, its a delicate piece of machinery that needs oiling up occasionally, especially the way most of us abuse it. People are continually doctoring for Stomach Troubles. There are many remedies one can take, but the simplest, and claimed to be the best, is a mixture of three simple ingredients that you can get at any Drug Store, they are inexpensive and can be mixed at home. Here they are: Compound Tincture of Cinchona, one ounce; Proseone Compound, one ounce; Sherry Wine, half a pint. Mix and take a teaspoonful in water before meals and at bed time.

BEST COUGH CURE MIX IT YOURSELF

Go to your druggist and get one-half ounce Concentrated oil of pine; two ounces of glycerine; half a pint of good pure whiskey; mix it up, glycerine and oil first, then add the whiskey. Use in doses of a teaspoon to a tablespoonful every four hours, shaking the bottle well each time.

The Concentrated oil of pine comes put up for medical use in half-ounce bottles each enclosed in a small wooden box which protects it from heat and light. If you do not find it sealed you know that you are not getting the real article.

There are also several patent medicines put up to resemble the Concentrated oil of pine and called by similar names. This stuff should be avoided. The Concentrated oil of pine is the only truly soluble pine preparation known to science. It also makes wonderfully effective liniment by putting teaspoonful of the raw oil into a saucerfull of hot lard applying hot. This is invaluable in cases of cold in the chest or sprains and bruises.
